On 10 July commencement exercises were held at the former Nanning Military Academy for 440 cadre members of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV). The cadre members had arrived in Nanning last February for a three months political and military training by the Chinese Communists. TSENG Kuo-hua (曾國華), deputy commander of the Kwangsi Military District Command, addressed the group. He urged them to continue the fight for liberation, expounded Sino-DRV cooperation, and expressed Chinese Communist determination of continued aid to the DRV revolutionary struggle. On 15 July the cadre members entrucked in three groups for Vietnam.
